SWISS MILK.

THE undersigned strongly recommend the adoption of NESTLE'S BRAND only for the nurture of Infants. From a careful examination and from the testimony of MOTHERS they are convinced that it is the BEST NOW MANUFACTURED. The change to it from other Milks IS PRODUCTIVE OF NOTHING BUT BENEFIT in the Nursery. Arrangements are made for constant fresh supplies.

D. S. KEMP & CO.,
SASSOON HOUSE, BOMBAY.

SPARKLING VIVONE.

EXTENSIVE as the sale of this beverage now is, the Public at large have a very inadequate idea of its real value. It is signally adapted to the requirements of hospitality and all social celebrations, and, besides being as companionable a refreshment as Tobacco, it gradually but SURELY ARRESTS THE LONGING FOR ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS.

The evidence to this effect is now overwhelming.

" SPECIALITE"
LIME JUICE.
REQUIRES NO SUGAR.
IS COMBINABLE with CLARET, &c.,—EFFERVESCING with ÆRATED WATERS.

THIS NEW preparation is made from the pure juice of the Lime Fruit, and is superior to other preparations of its kind by reasons of THREE very important FACTS, viz., it is without the usual objectionable MUSTY FLAVOUR ; it is FREE from SULPHURIC ACID ; it will keep any time SOUND and BRIGHT in all climates AFTER it is UNCORKED.

Another very great point in its favour over most non-Alcoholic drinks is, that it contains NO MEDICINAL SUBSTANCE :

The " SPECIALITE" LIME JUICE is an admirable addition to Claret Cup, Sherry Negus, and Whiskey Toddy : it is suitable for all seasons of the year.

The following representative opinions establish the absolute wholesomeness, usefulness, and purity of the " Specialite" Lime Juice, which was exhibited in the International Medical Exhibition (and in the Museum of the British Medical Association) where those among the Celebrities of the Medical Profession, gathered from all parts of the earth, who examined it, expressed their unconditional approval.

From Dr. EDMUNDS, M.D., M.R.C.P. Lond., &c. ; Medical Officer of Health for St. James's, London ; Sea-Physician to the Temperance Hospital.

" FELTOE'S ' Spécialité,' Lime Juice has been much liked at the Temperance Hospital. As the purified juice of a wholesome fruit and free from chemical compounds it is the best thing before the public and just what has long been wanted as a Non-Alcoholic beverage."

From Dr. J. M. CROMBIE, M.A., M.D.

" The ' Spécialité' Lime Juice from its undoubted purity and grateful qualities is a safe and an excellent antidote for thirst."

From Dr. A. STEPHENSON, M.D.

" I consider your ' Specialite' Lime Juice both a healthy and refreshing beverage. I drink it myself, and recommend it to my patients."

From Dr. G. H. SMITH, M. B.

" I have much pleasure in testifying of the good qualities of your ' Spécialité Lime Juice,' and find it more palatable than all the numerous temperance drinks of the present day.

From Dr. J. McGRIGOR CROFT, M.D., M.R.C.P., Lond., late Staff Surgeon to H. M.'s Army Hospitals.

" In my experience of the various kinds of Lime Juice for Medicinal purposes, or beverages, your ' Spécialité' non-alcoholic Lime Juice has not an equal. The fact of its keeping bright and non-musty, speaks volumes for its preparation by you."

From C. H. PIESSE, F.C.S., Public Analyst, the Laboratory, Savoy House, London.

" I beg to report that the result of my Analysis of your sample of ' Specialite' Lime Juice shows it to be absolutely pure."

From Dr. W. DOMETT-STONE, M.D., F.R.C.S., Physician to the Finsbury Dispensary, London, 19th November, 1881.

During the considerable period I devoted my attention to the prevention of Scurvy in the Mercantile Navy, I had numerous samples of Lime Juice brought under my notice not one of which I unhesitatingly affirm, could be compared either in appearance, flavour or purity to the bottle of Feltoe's " Specialite" Lime Juice, I received a few days since.

SINGER'S SEW

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 17.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been in active demand, and prices have improved considerably. A large amount of 4 per cents. changed hands at 101, and the rate may now be quoted 1-16th better, that is, for cash or immediate delivery; but forward contracts can be made at considerably higher limits. 15th February delivery has been done at 101¼ to ⅜, and 10th March at 101⅝. Four-and-a-half per cents. may be taken as nominally 110, but no business has been done in them.

The SHARE MARKET generally is very firm, but the main improvement has been in spinning shares. These have been in good demand all day, and close Rs. 5 to Rs. 25 above last night's quotations for most of the leading companies. Our detailed quotations are given below.

EXCHANGE has rather weakened this afternoon, and we close at the following quotations for immediate delivery, viz. :—

Bank Bills....	Demand. 3 months' sight. 1s. 8d.	4 months' sight. 1s. 8 13-32d.	3 months' sight.	6 months' sight.
Credits.....	1 8d.		1 8 11-16
Documents....	1 8 17-32		1 8 23-32
Francs.....	215¾		217½

Forward the rates are not so good, and we quote, say, after next mail 1-32 lower, after 15th February 1-16 lower.

COTTON.—The Market is quite without alteration to-day. Little business has been done. Sellers still stand out for the quoted rates, and these buyers will not pay in the meantime.

SEEDS and WHEAT are much as before.

METALS.—Copper and Yellow Metal are again very dull. Copper is now quoted from home £85, which is £1 lower, and Yellow Metal 7d. instead of 7¼ per lb. Nominal quotations are Rs. 50½ for the one, and Rs. 40 for the other; but at these rates there are neither buyers nor sellers.

FREIGHT.—The market is quiet but steady. The steamers Parklands and Clan Alpine have been fixed for Liverpool at 38s. 9d., with concessions, this month's shipment. There has been a good demand for freight for Trieste and Venice, and the Cerigo has filled up at 47s. 6d. For forward loading several steamers are offering, but there are few takers at present.

THE THAKORE SAHEB OF BHAONAGAR INVESTED WITH THE K.C.S.I.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RAJKOT, JAN. 17.

Grand preparations have been made for the investiture of the Thakore Saheb of Bhaonagar with the K. C. S. I. this evening. The Political Agent, Colonel Barton, has been deputed to present the insignia, in the absence of H. E. the Governor. The Thakore of Bhaonagar arrived here on Saturday evening. All the first-class chiefs, and also the minor princes, of Kathiawar have arrived. The entry of the Bhaonagar Chief was managed splendidly. Colonels Barton and Philips received His Highness a mile out of Rajkot, and escorted him in a grand procession to his camp. Most of the chiefs have formed camps, that of the Thakore of Bhaonagar being on the most extensive scale. It is on the plan of the camp at the Delhi Assemblage. The Thakore of Morvee's camp is lighted by electricity.

Owing to the melancholy cause of the Governor's absence, the ball and some of the chief events in the programme have been omitted. The chiefs are busy exchanging friendly visits.

LATER.

Colonel Barton performed the ceremony of investing the Maharaja of Bhaonagar with the insignia of a K. C. S. I. amid great splendour. After reading the Queen's warrant appointing His Highness a Knight of the Order, he addressed the assemblage at great length. He began by expressing great regret at the calamity which caused the absence of the Governor, and dwelt on the sympathy expressed by the chiefs with His Excellency. He then congratulated His Highness on being admitted into the Order, and praised the high qualities and princely liberality which had earned for him the distinction. He expressed the conviction that Her Majesty's choice could not have fallen on a worthier object.

A Gujarati translation of the address was read by Mr. Deputy Assistant Dhunjeeshaw.

The insignia having been presented, a salute was fired, and His Highness replied as follows :—Colonel Barton, your Highness, ladies, and gentlemen,—I utter no mere figure of speech when I assure you that I regard this to be an auspicious day on which I find myself enrolled among the Knight Commanders of the most exalted Order of the Star of India. We all here deplore, and none more than myself, the calamity which God Almighty has in his high wisdom thought fit to visit with such awful suddenness on my much valued friend, the respected Governor of Bombay, and which deprives us of his distinguished presence here. But it is a satisfaction to me that the performance of the ceremony this evening devolves on you, Colonel Barton, for whom I have learnt to entertain much esteem, and of whose regard I feel secure. It has hitherto been, as it shall always be, my endeavour to promote the welfare of my subjects. I am delighted to know that my career as a ruler has been thought worthy of approval by the Empress of India. I am deeply sensible of the gratitude I owe Her Imperial Majesty for her gracious recognition of the same. I shall thank you, Colonel Barton, to convey these sentiments to His Excellency the Governor, with a request that he would be good enough to communicate the same, with a due expression of my high sense of the honour conferred on me this day, to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen of England and Empress of India.

All the first-class chiefs and others, with the principal durbar officers, were present. British officers assisted in carrying out the programme. The assemblage was graced by the presence of several ladies.

The Maharaja of Bhaonagar was congratulated by his brother-chiefs and officers on the termination of the ceremony.

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.)

RAJKOT, JAN. 17.

The insignia of a Knight Commander of the Star of India was presented this evening to His Highness the Thakore Saheb of Bhaonagar by Colonel Barton, Political Agent, at a durbar held in the central hall of the High School. There were present the Nawab Saheb of Joonaghad, the Jam Saheb of Nowanagar, Raj Sahib of Dharagadra, Knights of the Star of India, the Thakore Sahebs of Morvee, Limdi, Rajkot, Wadwan, and the heir apparent of Paltana, Lakhtar Sayla Jusdun, with their respective ministers and followers, besides all the civil and military officers and principal ladies and gentlemen of the station. The hall was nicely decorated with memorial bearings, and the scene was quite picturesque. Colonel Barton occupied a raised

Before presenting the insignia he delivered a speech in which he referred feelingly to the recent calamity, and said that proud though he was of the honour which unexpectedly devolved on him, he could not help deploring the most sad event which had created profound impression on all. He cordially congratulated His Highness on his entry into the ranks of the highly exalted Order with so many illustrious personages of India at its head. His Highness was formerly conferred for acts of valour; but it was now given not only for approved service in the field, but for the victories of peace as well. Colonel Barton then referred to the princely liberality of His Highness, and his constant efforts to promote the welfare of his subjects by encouraging public works, education, trade, commerce, and the construction of railways. To Colonel Barton it was highly gratifying to present the insignia, for he esteemed His Highness not only for his public virtues, but also as an honoured and a personal friend.

The Star was then put around His Highness's neck, and a salute was fired. His Highness replied in English, thanking the Queen-Empress for the honour, and said he hoped to promote the welfare of his subjects.

After the distribution of attar and pan and flowers the durbar was concluded, the chiefs leaving under the usual salutes.

No case of cholera was reported to the Health Department yesterday.

ALARMING reports were current in Bombay last evening relative to a further outbreak of cholera at Guneshkind, but up to the hour of our going to press no confirmation of them was received

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR and the rest of the usual occupants of Government House have removed from the main building into detached bungalows in the large grounds adjacent.

THERE is to be a sham fight at Poona to-day, amongst the troops in garrison, the attack being commanded by Colonel Nuttall, and the defence by Colonel Govan.

UP to the 31st of December last the inland salt revenue amounted in value to Rs. 1,39,68,297, an increase of more than 22½ lakhs over the collections for the same period of the preceding official year.

THE appointments of Mr. B. W. Colvin as member of the Board of Revenue, N.-W. P., and of Mr. J. C. Robertson as Commissioner are made permanent from the 1st January, the date of Mr. A. O. Hume's retirement.

THE reports of the Revenue and Agricultural Department on the state of the season and prospects of the crops throughout India for the week ending the 10th January are officially summarised as followed :—Scarcely any rain fell during the week under report in any part of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab. In the two latter Provinces rain is much wanted, as the cold-weather crops on the unirrigated lands are suffering from want of moisture. In the Central India States there has been no rain, but the crops are reported good. In States of Rajputana and in the Central Provinces showers fell in a few places, and prospects are favourable. In the Bombay Presidency the outturn of the rabi crops is expected to be poor in two districts, and in others generally good. In the Nizam's Territories the rabi has much benefited by slight showers. In the Madras Presidency the rainfall has been more general during the week under report, and prospects are on the whole good. In other parts of the country, i.e., in Berar, Coorg, Assam, and British Burma, prospects continue favourable.

FROM the Progress Report of Forest Administration in the Punjab for 1880-81 it appears that the friction so long complained of between the Forest officers and the Deputy Commissioners has been at length removed. In consequence, doubtless, of the very strong and indignant remonstrance last year addressed to them by the Lieutenant-Governor, we read that "during the year magistrates have generally bestowed that care on the forest cases which is required to dispose of them in a satisfactory manner."

THE Athenæum :—In a paper "On the Constituent of the Atmosphere which absorbs Radiant Heat," read at the last meeting of the Royal Society, the author, Mr. S. A. Hill, Meteorological Reporter for the North-West Provinces and Oudh, discusses the observations made at different altitudes in India, and finds generally that they indicate the vapour of water as the constituent in question. He calls attention to the observations made at Grenoble in 1875 by Prof. Violle, simultaneously with observations taken at the Glacier des Bossons, the Grands Mulets, and on the summit of Mont Blanc, which support the water-vapour theory. Physicists and meteorologists will learn with satisfaction that a series of observations will be commenced next year at Leh, 11,500 feet above the sea. As that elevation overtops four-fifths of the absorbent atmosphere, it may be expected that the problem whether the sun's heat varies with the altitude or not will be settled. In any case comparison of the Leh observations with those to be made on Mount Whitney (United States) by Prof. Langley will hardly fail to yield data of great importance and value for future investigations.

By this time, remarks the Pioneer, it is highly probable that the conspirators who hoped to exterminate the Rana family in Nepal have been themselves exterminated. No alarm need be felt for the safety of Mrs. Girdlestone and the Residency Surgeon at Khatmandu, as there was no actual outbreak. The Residency guard consists of two native officers and 89 rank and file. These men do not belong to any of the native regiments, but are recruited by the Resident.

A. J. Herbert, C.B., whom his many friends will be glad to see back at the Horse Guards, where he made himself as popular as he did at Aldershot and Dublin.

IT is stated that Sir Evelyn Wood will be recommended to Her Majesty to receive the Grand Cross of the Bath, and that the Colonial Office will recommend him for the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

THE opening of the St. Gothard Tunnel for traffic was to be celebrated on Jan. 2 by a fête to be attended by the President of the Swiss Confederation and other members of the Federal Council.

WITH reference to a paragraph which we quoted from the Standard last week regarding Sir F. Roberts and the Qr.-Mr. Generalship, the Army and Navy Gazette remarks :—What is the Army coming to, when we read in a daily paper that "pressure has been brought to bear" on an officer "to induce him to accept" an appointment, and that "he may yet consent" to do so, as if it were the most natural thing in the world? Imagine "the Duke" dealing with an officer in that fashion! It is too ridiculous. The Queen can call on any officer to serve, as she pleases, and he cannot even resign without her permission.

Two amendments, it is reported, are likely to be moved on the Address at the opening of Parliament. One will come from the Irish quarter, and will raise the question of the prisoners who may at that time still be in Kilmainham. The other will be brought forward by the Conservative Opposition, and will challenge the whole policy of the Executive in Ireland. It is estimated that the debate will be extended to the week following that on which Parliament is summoned.

THE Pall Mall Gazette :—Perhaps the most satisfactory piece of news in the papers is that of the evacuation of the Transvaal by the British troops and the quiet acceptance of the Convention by the Boers. An end is thus put to one of the most vexatious episodes in our colonial history. The moral drawn by the Times is probably the right one—that it is a mistake to control the relations of colonies to the native races among which they are planted from Downing-street. When colonists feel that they are really responsible, and that they will have to find their own way out of their own scrapes, they will be all the more likely to think twice before getting into them. This is plain. The great difficulty lies with certain people at home who insist that English intervention must be good for the natives. The Basutos, loyal and otherwise, would tell a different tale.

ACCORDING to the Daily Telegraph, a plot for the assassination of the Czar was arranged, and would, but for its timely discovery, have taken fatal effect on Christmas Eve. It was anticipated by the conspirators that His Majesty would have visited St. Petersburg on that day, and that "he would have followed the ordinary custom of reviewing the troops in the Riding School." Had he done so, and had he passed along the street where the deadly ambush was laid, the correspondent of the Telegraph is able to assert that nothing could have saved his life.

SOME of the Paris correspondents of the London papers received by the mail state that the first measure which M. Gambetta will bring before the Chambers early next (this) month will be one for the revision of the constitution "The scheme will involve considerable military changes, the most important being the creation of a colonial army based on the long-service system, simultaneously with a reduction of the time of service in the Army of Defence to three years." A proposal to increase the pay of the members of the Legislature is being urged on the Government, and it is said that the Ministry are not unwilling to support it if the matter is brought forward by "an influential deputy."

THE Army and Navy Gazette :—As soon as the arrangements for Sir C. Ellice's retirement, and the succession to office of Sir G. Wolseley, were complete, the Quartermaster-General took a step which must be approved of by every officer and gentleman. Adverting to the leading articles and paragraphs which had appeared in the numerous papers which dealt with the supposed imbroglio at the War Office and Horse Guards, Sir G. Wolseley assured H. R. H. the Duke of Cambridge that he had not the smallest complicity, direct or indirect, in those publications, and that they had caused him the greatest pain and annoyance; and the Field-Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, in expressing the satisfaction which the assurance caused him, at the same time declared that he had never dreamt of attributing to Sir Garnet Wolseley any share in a knowledge of the remarks and comments reflecting on the Horse Guards to which he referred.

THE Savoy Theatre, London has been lighted with the electric light. One of the London papers remarks that "if the playgoing public is under obligations to the management of the Savoy for steady perseverance in the effort to apply the electric light to the lighting of theatres. That the problem how a theatre can be illuminated both on the stage and in the auditorium by the new light is at length solved was shown to the public on Wednesday afternoon at the one thousandth performance of 'Patience.' A steady, warm, and mellow light, derived entirely from electricity, interfering in no manner with the make-up of the faces or the colours of the dresses, and wholly devoid of heat, smoke, or danger, was maintained during the entire representation. To show meanwhile how free from danger is the light, one of the glasses in which the coil was broken while a gauze veil was over it. The light at once expired, and left the veil unscorched. By the adoption of the electric system a great risk, perhaps the principal risk, of fire in a theatre is removed. Other risks, however, remain. In a theatre it is not easy to dispense with movable lamps, candles, &c., which are brought upon the stage. These, when incautiously handled, as sometimes they are, constitute a serious danger. Care must be taken, moreover, when the electric light is used that no accident to machinery employed in its production leaves the house in entire darkness on both sides of the curtain."

A STRANGE attack was made on Christmas Day upon Mr. C. R. Palmer Morewood, of Alfreton Hall, a magistrate for Derbyshire. Mr. Morewood had invited his brothers—Mr. George Herbert, Mr. Alfred, Mr. Ernest Augustus, and Mr. William Louis Morewood—to dine with him and his mother. After dinner Mrs. Morewood left, and the gentlemen adjourned to the smoking-room. Later on the four young brothers asked their host to accompany them to the library, and he having done so they looked the door and demanded with threats that he should sign a document, which is believed to have been to their pecuniary advantage. Mr. Morewood declined, and thereupon his brothers commenced to brutally assault him. At midnight the four young men left the house, after informing the butler that his master was lying drunk upon the library floor. The butler upon going there found Mr. Morewood lying in a pool of blood, insensible, and almost naked. He was carried to bed, and now lies in an exceedingly critical condition.

THE Home Secretary, in reply to a memorial praying him to remit the sentences on the prisoners for bribery, expressed his regret that he does not see his way to complying with the request. Since then, however, the Home Secretary has cancelled one of the sentences, and has released from Canterbury prison one of the prisoners, Mackie, the coxswain of the Deal lifeboat, who has saved the lives of many men. Imprisonment had completely broken down his health, and the prison surgeon certified that his existence was in danger.

SIR WILLIAM HARCOURT has done the right thing, the Pall Mall Gazette thinks, in declining to interfere with the bribery sentences; and, by limiting himself to the briefest refusal of the prayer of the petitioners, he has this time avoided the danger of saying the wrong thing. Whatever may have been the motives of those who signed it, the petition if it had been successful could only have had the effect of postponing any serious attempt to stamp out electoral corruption; and before the matter is allowed to drop it is worth while, by way of applying "the test of sincerity," to carry a step further the analysis given in a recent issue of the Standard. The memorial was signed, we are told, by thirty-two peers; the analysis should have gone on to state that twenty-four of them were Conservatives and only eight Liberals, and, as the Duke of Westminster has now disclaimed, the number of Liberal peers is reduced to seven. Among the members of the House of Commons the proportion of Conservatives was yet heavier, the numbers being—Home Ruler, 1; Liberals, 15; Conservatives, 59. And if the party distinction be eliminated and other principles of division adopted instead, equally suggestive results are obtained by a complete analysis. Of the seventy-five members of the House of Commons no less than thirty-three represent counties, while of the remaining forty-two four are aldermen, two represent Sandwich and Wigan respectively, and twenty-three represent boroughs containing less than 5,000 electors.

A PAMPHLET has been published at Washington, entitled "The Irish Avenger; or, Dynamite Evangelist." Its sixteen pages are filled with with incendiary appeals to the Irish to destroy London. There are many scriptural quotations designed to show that God approves such work, and there is a hymn beginning "Hail dynamite, glorious dynamite." At the close the writer says, "Blessed be the hand that causes the first outbreak of the forked-red flame that wraps London in a blaze. Blessed be they who fan that flame into a towering conflagration which no human power can arrest, till the den of the British tyrants shall become a heap of ruins." The author is an Irishman named P. M. McGill, who states that the pamplet is the first of a series of four. The next number will give instructions how to use dynamite most safely and effectively.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE GRANT COLLEGE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

THE annual meeting of the Society was held in the College library on Wednesday, the 11th instant, the President, Mr. J. C. Lisboa, occupying the chair.

A letter from Dr. H. Giraud, formerly Professor of Chemistry in Grant Medical College, addressed to the President, was read :—

Shanklin, Isle of Wight, October 26, 1881.

DEAR MR. LISBOA,— I have read your address with the greatest pleasure and gratification, not merely as it recalls many pleasant associations with the past, but because I am so glad to find that the foundations of medical science, carefully laid in Bombay some 35 years ago, are being so industriously built upon by yourself and some few of your contemporaries and successors, to whose efforts the success, and even the very existence, of the Society is due. If our dear departed friend Dr. Peet were still living, he would, indeed (as you say), "be gratified to learn that you are striving to imitate him by contributing to the advancement of medical science, and to the prosperity and continuance of the Society."

Your address delights me with the true scientific spirit that pervades it, the philosophical views of the profession which you express, and the right incentives to labour which you held out to the younger members of our profession. I sincerely trust also that the efforts you are making to render the Society directly useful to the community of Bombay may be crowned with success. As I look back to the period when Grant College sent forth its first few graduates, it is very interesting to think the time has arrived when, from your numbers and the influence you have attained, the possibility of passing a medical and pharmaceutical Act for Bombay may be entertained. I am glad also you are trying to influence Government in the judicious selection of representative graduates for the honour of the Fellowship of the University; for the time, I think, has arrived in the progress of education in India when the honours of its universities should be bestowed upon men, not on account of their wealth or social position, but in recognition of their attainments and distinction in science and learning. Your enthusiastic remarks on the ever-varying recreation and pure delight afforded by the pursuit of natural science gave me the greatest pleasure, and I trust they will not be lost upon your audience. I have been also much interested in the abstracts of the papers communicated by your members, and particularly those lately contributed by Mr. Gopal Shivram and others. Herewith I enclose a demand draft for Rs. from which I should be obliged if you would pay my old laboratory servant, Tookaram, Rs. if still alive, and give him my salaam, and present what remains of the money as a small contribution to the funds of the Grant College Medical Society.

HERBERT GIRAUD.

The President, in proposing a vote of thanks to Dr. H. Giraud for his donation to the funds of the Society, spoke in high terms of the services rendered by him to medical education in this city, and the interest he continued to take in the welfare of the Society.

The President then read his annual address. He said that the Society was founded for the double purpose of self-improvement of its members, and the advancement of medical science in Bombay. He alluded to the advance made in medical science by the introduction of various instruments for diagnosing diseases, such as the stethoscope, the ophthalmoscope, the microscope, the thermometer, &c., by the correct use of which the qualified medical practitioner gained superiority over the vaids and hakims, who were quite ignorant of the uses of such instruments. The stethoscope had been the means of revealing obscure diseases of the lungs and heart, also obscure and concealed pregnancies, presence of twins, &c. The ophthalmoscope had taught them the nature of several diseases of the eyes which were not understood before; it had also been the means of diagnosing several obscure diseases of the brain. The microscope had really done wonders in medical science, of which all medical men were well aware. There were, besides, several questions relating to public health, such as ventilation, cleanliness, drainage, and water-supply of towns, effects of excessive labour on the poor, evils of early marriages, adulterated food and drink, &c., which demanded careful study and attention of every medical practitioner; a knowledge of which would be the means of averting "loss of thousands of lives from causes which it is in the power of man to prevent."

In concluding he exhorted the members to follow in the footsteps of Laennec, Babbage, and Jenner, who never lost sight of truths which, however insignificant they seemed at first, were the means of revolutionising medical literature. Before resuming his seat Mr. Lisboa referred to the conversation he had with H. E. Sir Richard Temple a few days before his departure from Bombay, and to the promise His Excellency made, to give the Society some sort of recognition in his public utterances. Sir Richard did not, however, remain here long enough to carry out his promise; but he had left undone what was being done by his successor, Sir James Fergusson, in his own quiet way. Their managing committee had only lately been asked by His Excellency to give an opinion on Dr. Russel's work on "Malaria and Ruptures of the Spleen," which might mention that a short while ago he had interviews with both Sir James and the Hon'ble Mr. Ashburner, and from what had fallen from them, he believed they were inclined to support their application for a "Medical Act" for Bombay.

Mr. Atmaram Pandurung, in proposing a vote of thanks to the retiring President, asked the meeting to re-elect him. His proposal was warmly seconded by Dr. Blanc, who, in the course of his remarks, dwelt on the important services Mr. Lisboa had rendered the Society, and on the fact that the proposition was carried with acclamation. Messrs. Atmaram Pandurung and Succaram Arjoon were re-elected Vice-Presidents. The meeting then dissolved.

THE MANDALAY REMONSTRANCE.

THE following is the full text of the letter which was recently sent by the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah to H. E. the Minister for Foreign Affairs at Mandalay, on the subject of the monopolies :—

From C. BERNARD, Esq., C. S., Acting Chief Commissioner, British Burma, to His Excellency the MINISTER for FOREIGN AFFAIRS, at the Court of Ava.

Dated Rangoon, the January 1882.

Your Excellency,—The Viceroy and Governor-General in Council has directed me to address your Excellency again on the subject of the monopolies granted for sundry articles of trade between British Burma and the dominions of His Majesty the King.

2. In February and again in September last, I had the honour of representing to Your Excellency that the policy of granting trade monopolies, if persevered in, would do great injury to the commerce between the two countries, and that such monopolies were contrary to the treaty of 1867. In reply to the representations of February, Your Excellency informed me that nothing had been done calculated to depress trade or to be inconsistent with the terms of the treaty, and in reply to the remonstrance of September, Your Excellency referred me to your previous answer of the 26th April, saying that you had nothing further to say in addition thereto.

3. The Viceroy and Governor-General on coming to Rangoon, enquired carefully into the question of these monopolies, and he has received memorials on the question from the Rangoon Chamber of Commerce and from representative merchants who are engaged or interested in the Mandalay trade. His Excellency the Viceroy finds that, since my letter of September last, the Government of His Majesty the King have granted monopolies for many other articles of trade. He finds that the establishment of these monopolies has already done much harm and will probably do much more harm to the commerce between the two countries. The merchants of Rangoon and other towns in British Burma, whether British, Chinese, Moslem or Burman, represent that if the monopolies continue, trade with Mandalay will come to an absolute stand-still, and will thus cause serious loss if not suffering to the traders of the two countries.

4. His Excellency the Viceroy in Council directs me to state to Your Excellency as forcibly as I can that it is certainly no longer possible to say that the monopoly policy does not injure trade. In the reign of His Majesty the late King monopolies were occasionally granted; but upon representation being made the monopolies were usually modified. During the first two years of His Majesty the present King's reign there were no monopolies, trade was unrestricted, and the commerce between the two countries increased greatly and rapidly. Now,—the memorials and assurances of the merchants, as well as the actual statistics of trade with Upper Burma during the last few months, make it very clear that commerce between the two countries has decreased and will, if the monopolies continue, suffer much further injury.

5. The Governor-General in Council believes that the Government of His Majesty the King desire to remain on terms of friendship with the British Government, and desire that both countries should be benefited by mutual commerce. Such friendship and intercourse are best maintained by means of the communications to be set on foot by trade, and therefore there is nothing in the relations between the Indian and Upper Burma Governments to which the Viceroy in Council attaches more importance than to unrestricted commerce. On this account he disires that trade between the two countries should flourish, improve, and remain unrestricted. The pressure which was made with the object of His late King were mainly directed to securing the fulfilment of this desire. If, therefore, the Government of His Majesty the king continue the policy of granting monopolies, the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council will be compelled to regard the Government of Mandalay as indifferent to the maintenance of good relations with the British Government. The Governor-General in Council disclaims any wish to interfere in the internal affairs, fiscal or other, of Upper Burma; he desires to cultivate and to increase the friendship which has in past time existed between the two countries; but he cannot but look upon the continuance of a commercial policy such as has been adopted at Mandalay during the last few months, as indication of a disregard on the part of the Government of the King of Ava of their duties towards a friendly Government.

6. His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council has caused me to address to Your Excellency this strong remonstrance on the subject of the trade monopolies now obtaining in Upper Burma. He directs me finally to say that, if commercial affairs between the two countries continue in their present state, or fall into a worse position in consequence of the continuance of trade monopolies, the Government of His Majesty the King will be responsible for any diminution of friendship between the two countries which results from such proceedings.—I have the honour to be, Your Excellency, your most obedient servant,

C. BERNARD,
Acting Chief Commissioner.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A Hindu, woman, aged thirty-two years, named Suckoo, residing on Nowrojee Hill, was on Monday last removed to the J. J. Hospital, suffering from the effects of opium, which she had taken owing to a dispute between her husband and his second wife.

THE ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN OF THE CORPORATION.—Dr. Cook writes to us with reference to the last meeting of the Corporation—"I did not vote, either at the show of hands or at the poll, and was not present at the latter." Dr. Cook's name was entered in the list of those who voted in favour of Sir Frank Souter.

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.—The following notice is placarded in the Office of the Commissioner of Police, Mazagon :—"Stolen from Brynkinallt, Chirk, the residence of Lord Trevor, on Sunday, 4th December, 1881 (Here follows a long list of valuable gold jewellery set with diamonds and precious stones and pearls, &c.) The above reward will be paid by Lord Trevor of Brynkinallt, Chirk, to any person giving such information as shall lead to the conviction of the thieves and recovery of the property, or in proportion to the amount recovered. Information to Major Leadbitter, Chief Constable, Wrexham, or to the Director of Criminal Investigations, Great Scotland Yard, London."

THE C. D. ACT.—What is the value to the ratepayers of Bombay of having an official chairman in the Corporation or the Town Council? The question is best answered by a reference to what occurred at the last meeting of the Town Council. Dr. Cook, Chairman of the Town Council, stood up to read to the Council the Government Resolution on the C. D. Act; and he was followed by a member who proposed that the Corporation should be asked to congratulate Government on the success which had (according to one view) attended the operations of the Act. A few more official members in the Council—and they would have swamped the non-officials, and carried the day.—Indu Prakash.

SIR JAMES FERGUSON.—We learn that His Excellency has been advised by his medical attendants to quit Gunnesh Khind and to travel about to wean his mind by distraction from the sad associations connected with Bombay and Poona, and thus to prevent grief from preying too severely on his health. Bombay has become distasteful to him because of the death of Lady Fergusson; and Poona, again, has its sad memories for him by reason of Miss Richman's melancholy end. Two such sad occurrences taking place in so short an interval between them must prove injurious to even a strong and healthy constitution, and to a mind not burthened with the fatigues of heavy official duties: vailed upon to travel in strict incognito, and gradually recover from the dreadful shock he must have sustained from the two late melancholy occurrences in his family. H. E., we believe, has not yet given in his adherence to the views of his medical advisers, but we hope wiser counsels will yet prevail, and that our esteemed Governor will in travel find solace and relief for his mind. All the leading members of the heterogeneous community of Western India have publicly expressed their sympathy with the Governor in his melancholy bereavement.—Deccan Herald.

THE DEATH OF LADY FERGUSSON.—A public meeting of the lady members of the families of the Sirdars of the Deccan, and other influential ladies, to the number of upwards of one hundred, was held in the Town-hall, Hirabagh, City, for the purpose of drawing up and forwarding a letter of condolence to Miss Fergusson on the occasion of the lamented death of Lady Fergusson. The proposal was carried unanimously, and it was farther put to the vote, and carried nem. con., that a fund should be raised to erect some memorial, hereinafter to be decided upon, to perpetuate the memory of the deceased lady. The liveliest and most abiding interest was evinced by all present in the proceedings,—an event that is all the more remarkable from the fact that a public meeting of this nature among the ladies of rank and position is unique in its kind, and only serves to indicate how genuine and sincere is the regret that has been occasioned in native educated circles by the unhappy events that have moved society, European and native, to its lowest depths. First-Class Sirdar Bayabai Maharaj occuped the chair; and the meeting, as became it, was most successfully conducted, the several speakers vying with one another in paying the tribute of honour to the memory of the departed, and being unanimous in their expressions of sympathy and condolence. Let us hope this graceful example on the part of these distinguished native ladies will not be thrown away on the several communities scattered over Western India, and that other such public meetings will be held having the same kind purpose in view. We are not a little surprised, however, that the ladies of the Parsi community have not yet made any stir in the matter, but have allowed the palm for good feeling and good taste to be borne away from them by Hindu ladies, who flocked to the place of meeting in such large numbers to give public voice to their sincere womanly sympathy with the survivors of the bereaved family.—Ibid.

AMERICAN ORGUINETTE,
IMPROVED PATTERN.

THE AMERICAN ORGUINETTE is a Reed Musical Instrument, constructed somewhat on the principle of the American Organ, and adapted to be automatically operated by simple sheets or strips of perforated paper, each sheet representing one or more tunes. There is no limit to either kind or quantity of music. It will play HYMN TUNE, POPULAR AIR, SET OF QUADRILLE, POLKAS, WALTZES, REELS, and HORNPIPES with a clearness, accuracy and degreed execution which but few performers can equal. A MERE CHILD CAN PLAY IT. The music-box and all kindred instruments are the only expensive luxuries enjoyed by a few, but they are limited to a few set tunes, and so soon become tiresome, and as means of enjoyment to their owners, entirely worthless. The AMERICAN ORGUINETTE, with its automatic music sheets, represents both organ and organist, music, musician, and music-teacher, and so is admirably adapted for singing-parties, dancing-parties, winter evening entertainments, and educational purposes, and is, therefore, not only the latest musical wonder, but the price considered.

The most Marvellous Mechanical Musical Instrument of the Age.

It is the most simple, perfect, instructive, enjoyable, and amusing automatic Musical Instrument in the World.

PERFORMING EVERY DESCRIPTION OF MUSIC.
PRICE, WITH ATTACHMENT AND MUSIC, Rs. 60. Packing, Rs. 2 extra.
The above style is provided with an Expression Box, by means of which the quality and power of the tone are greatly varied.

EXTRA TUNES FROM RS. 1-8 EACH.

Excellent in tone. Unique in design. Perfectly simple in principle. Strong in construction. Durable in every part.

A larger instrument than the above at Rs. 250.

"CANTANTE RESONANTE" PIANO.

APPEARANCE Handsome, Solid Dark Wood. TONE, Rich and Full, suitable for singing or for brilliant Pianoforte Music. COMPASS, Seven Octaves, Full Compass. CONSTRUCTION, Sympathetic Metal Frame. Latest improvements in action. CHEAPNESS, Price Rs. 650, Packing Case Extra.

Intending Purchasers are respectfully requested to inspect the above Instrument, and it will be found to be equal, if not superior, to any other Piano at the price sold in Bombay.
